

West Midlands Migrant Health Summit

25th January 2018, 9.30m-4.30pm

Venue: Public Health England, 5 St Philip's Pl, Birmingham B3 2PW.

Public Health England West Midlands Centre is hosting a regional migrant health summit to bring together professionals from across the region. The provisional agenda is as follows:

Chair: Jane Moore

9.30-10: Registration

10-10.05: Introductions (Sue Ibbotson, Centre Director, PHE West Midlands Centre)

10.05-10.20: National context (Alison Crawshaw, PHE national lead for migrant health)

10.20-10.50: an academic perspective on migrant health (Prof Simon Pemberton, University of Keele; Prof Jenny Phillimore, University of Birmingham; and colleagues)

10.50-11.10: PHE's role in supporting migrant health work in the West Midlands (Karen Saunders and Matthew Francis, PHE West Midlands Centre)

11.10-11.30: Work of the West Midlands Strategic Migration Partnership (Dalvinder Panesar)

11.30-11.45: break

11.45-12.00: a local authority perspective on migrant health (Natalie Wright, Coventry City Council and Chris Baggott, Birmingham City Council)

12.00-12.15: an NHS perspective on migrant health (Dr Giles de Wildt, GP)

12.15-12.30: VCS perspective on migrant health (Rachel Thomas, Migrant Help)

12.30-1.00: group discussion

1.00-1.45: lunch (unfortunately not provided)

1.45-2.45: workshops 1

2.50-3.50: workshops 2

3.55-4.30: discussion and close.

Workshops (repeated):

1. Mental health: Emily Smith (PHE West Midlands Centre) and Bethany Finch (WMSMP)
2. Ongoing system challenges: healthcare charging (Dave Newall); health protection (David Kirage, PHE West Midlands Centre); Controlling Migration Fund (Richard Ross, WMSMP).
Chair: Giles de Wildt
3. Doctors of the World: Lucy Jones (chair), Lucinda Hiam, Santosh Rai